

Spotlight Moments

DEBATE

Our novices went to a national circuit tournament, called "Badgerland."

They competed against schools all over the midwest, including the glenbrooks.

It was a two day tournament, Friday and Saturday where they had a total of five rounds - where they won every single round.

The top two team of the tournament was our very own, Erika Torres, Andrew Meacham & Carson Heussner, Kenzie Narkis

“These kids give up their Saturdays, their enrichment time, their after school time, their after practice time, they make decisions about how to balance debate - which is almost all year. They give up a lot to make these decisions, and clearly it has paid off. My five years, and Mr. Hansen’s almost 20 years of coaching we have never closed off a National Circuit tournament... this is a major milestone in our careers and one that we did not expect.”

- Ms. Hansen (novice coach)

PUBLICATIONS

Publications has a new initiative – which developed from the yearly theme Stand Out

“Students see a climate of negativity through news and media, so our staff wants to celebrate the positives and create positive moments in our school environment and in our community.”

- Mrs. Newbury
(yearbook advisor)

LATINO CLUB BAILE

Results

We had around 175 people attended in total

We made $600 in profit, we will use these proceeds for future events.

We had many different foods, mole, tamales, tacos, and more.

On the river level we had a DJ and we combined the Jefferson and Fort Atkinson Latino Clubs.

LATINO CLUB EVENTS

- Thanks to our club advisor, Ms. Wilson, we have had a college tour to UW-Milwaukee and are currently planning more.
- We will also be having a college professor from Whitewater come in and talk about planning for college.
- Microaggression presentation next week & how to start college applications!
